

Complaints Charter

Our commitment to you

Irish Life is committed to delivering excellent service to all our customers; however, we recognise that things may occasionally go wrong. If you have an issue with the service you receive, we appreciate the time and effort you take to bring this to our attention. We will do our best to deal with your complaint as effectively and quickly as possible.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT?

EPICC

- > We will deal with your complaint promptly, professionally and fairly.
- > We will record each complaint, keep you updated while we investigate your complaint and track it to conclusion.
- > Where we have made a mistake we will apologise and rectify.
- > We will give a detailed response explaining the reason for any decision we make.
- > We will identify the cause of the complaint and put measures in place as far as possible, to make sure it does not happen again.
- > We will keep our promises and commitments.

How do I make a complaint?

We have many ways in which you can contact us:

01 704 2000

code@irishlife.ie

Irish Life, Lower Abbey Street, PO Box 129, FREEPOST, Dublin 1

For us to resolve your complaint as quickly as possible, please include the following information when you contact us:

- > Your account details (policy/membership number/plan name) – this will help us to find the account you are contacting us about.
- > Phone number – this will help us if we need to speak with you at any stage during the complaint investigation.
- > As much information about the complaint as you feel able to give.
- > Are there any particular actions you wish us to take to resolve your complaint? If so, please include them.

If you need any special assistance please let us know so we can help by adjusting our complaint process to suit your needs.

What will happen next?

Once we assign your complaint to one of our dedicated complaint handlers, we will acknowledge your complaint in writing and include a direct telephone number for our team should you wish to contact us.

During the complaint investigation, the team member assigned to your complaint may contact you to seek relevant additional information and/or provide you with an update.

When we complete the investigation, we will contact you and explain the findings and the outcome.

When should I expect a response?

- > We aim to resolve our complaints within 20 working days.
- > Due to nature of complaints, it may take longer than anticipated to complete the investigation. If this does happen, we will contact you and let you know how the investigation is progressing.
- > Under the Central Bank's Consumer Protection Code, we are required to provide you with written updates on the progress of your complaint every 20 working days.

What if I have any questions?

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us using the direct phone number that we will provide to you in our complaint acknowledgement communication and we will be happy to help you.

What if you are not satisfied?

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman who will decide if the matter falls within their terms of reference.
